call for participation!

Burnaby district secondary schools are invited to create and submit student artwork for this year's Arts Alive 2012 exhibit! Join in by creating artwork with your class for this biennial exhibit that showcases the extraordinary talent of students in Grades 8-12. Photography, film, print and digital media (video, sound) works will be featured at the Burnaby Art Gallery.

Jury selections are based on:

- strong communication of concept
- craftsmanship
- originality in concept, materials and/or process

Ask your art department head, principal, or visit our website for details and the participation package.
